

Job Sectors in the Golden Triangle versus Citywide

Percent of All Jobs in the Golden Triangle by Sector, 2017

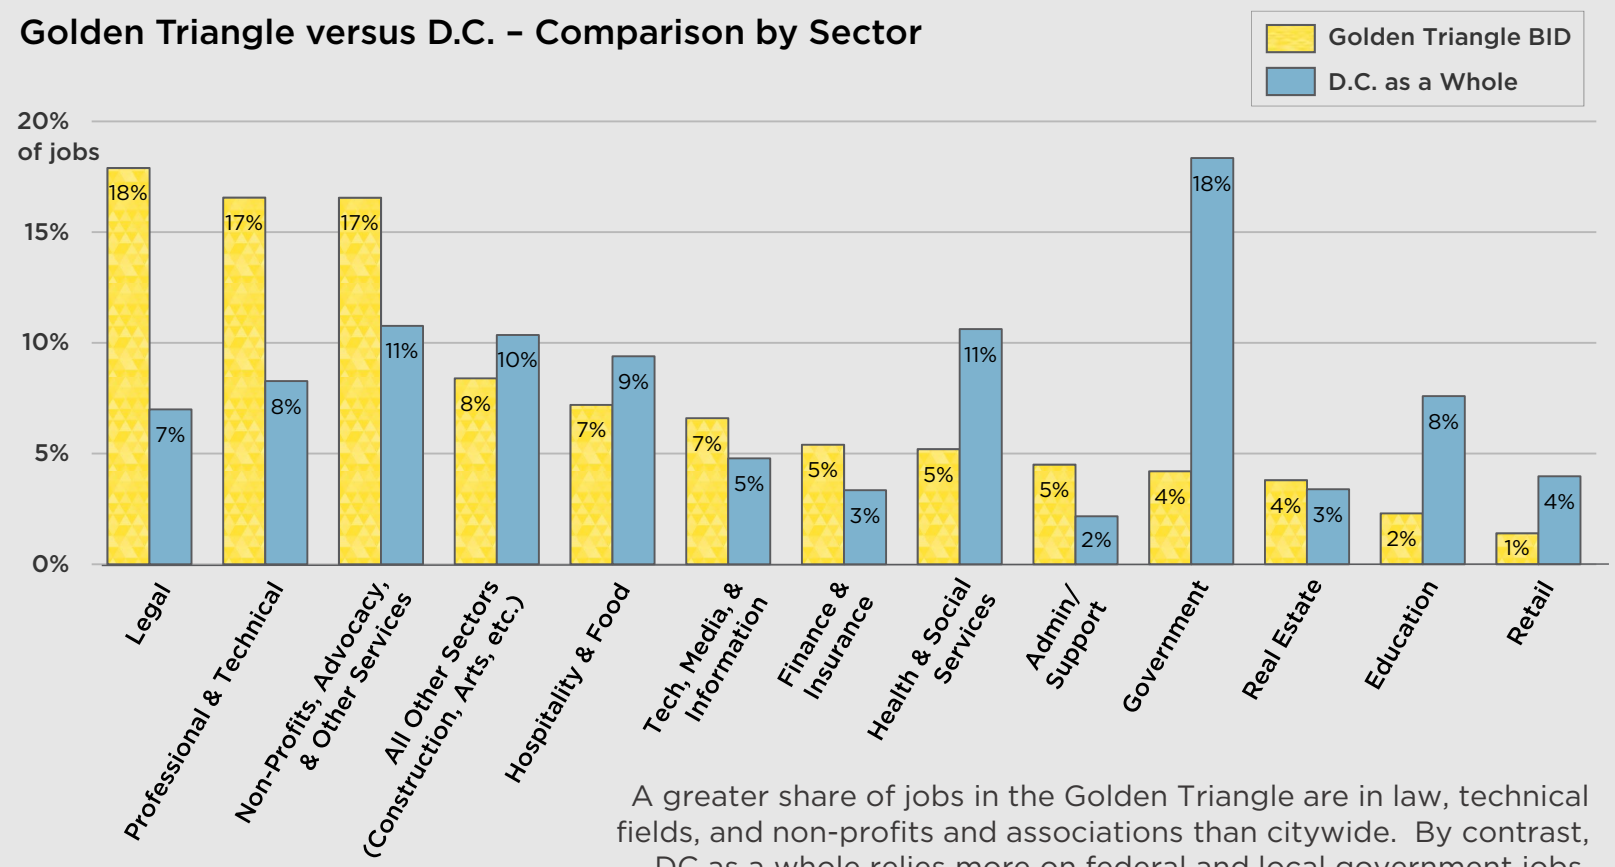

The Golden Triangle has a third of DC's top 100 law firms. About 16,000 of the BID's 89,000 total workers are in the legal sector.

Along with other professional services, around 300 design, architecture, and marketing firms call the Golden Triangle home. These creative firms are drawn in part by the area's high-quality, modern office spaces and opportunities for collaboration.

Golden Triangle versus D.C. - Comparison by Sector

A greater share of jobs in the Golden Triangle are in law, technical fields, and non-profits and associations than citywide. By contrast, DC as a whole relies more on federal and local government jobs.

