

Building Booms within the Golden Triangle BID

The 1960s, 1980s, and 2000s were building booms in the Golden Triangle BID, as well as the current decade.

33 buildings were built or renovated in the BID since 2010.

Eight brand-new buildings will deliver in the next 3 years.

Recent construction and renovations have clustered on the western side of the Golden Triangle.

Sources: CoStar, DC HistoryQuest, Heurich House Museum, Golden Triangle BID internal data, Esri.

Built in 1892 by German-born brewer Christian Heurich, the Heurich House is now a museum. The mansion's Victorian interior has been carefully preserved, and hosts "Brewmaster" tasting tours.